

Christian Business Survey

How well does your business follow Christ and apply Biblical principles? If you are a business leader, please answer the questions below.

	Disagree				Agree
My company conducts a prayer meeting at least weekly to pray about the needs of staff, clients, and vendors.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company builds Christian mediation clauses into contracts to help insure resolution of matters using Biblical principles	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company helps all staff members follow uniform workflows that maximize unity and effectiveness in serving clients	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company insists on the disclosure of all material conflicts of interest in written documents shared with appropriate parties.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company develops reasonable pro forma projections of growth and modifies them appropriately when we deviate from targets.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company encourages meetings between staff members and a corporate chaplain at least weekly.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company gives me broad freedom to exercise Christian beliefs in the work environment	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company guards against the use of unnecessary debt	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company has client feedback mechanisms to insure fulfillment of all commitments.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company has e-mail policies in place to help insure communications that honor God. (See, e.g., http://e-mail10Commandments.com)	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company has precautions in place to guard against inappropriate web-surfing	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company has quality control procedures in place to help insure that all products and services uphold high standards of excellence.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company helps each staff member discover his or her natural gifts and develop a job description reflecting his or her calling.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company insures the confidentiality of client data	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company posts a Biblical statement of core values for review by staff and outsiders	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company provides training to help all staff members excel in their positions	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company seeks prayerfully guidance from Christian leaders when updating its statement of vision, mission, and key objectives	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company invests retirement assets in companies with Christian leadership and/or Christian values	①	②	③	④	⑤
My company uses 360 degree feedback or other third party review to help insure faithfulness to core values	①	②	③	④	⑤