

Discipleship Survey

How well have you been discipled? This survey is based on the essay at <http://covenant.net/articles/Disciple-making.mht>, which was written by TM Moore, a theologian working with Chuck Colson.

	Disagree				Agree
My discipler would say that his first calling is to make disciples	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler reinforces my ability to make decisions based on Biblical values.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler helps me apply God's truth to shed new light on the demands of discipleship in my home, work and social life.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler helps me see my calling from the Lord and follow a vocation consistent with God's Word.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler exhorts me to put aside all affections that tie me to the earth and strengthen those affections God approves.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler teaches the Law of God as the holy, righteous, and good standard of conduct for God's people.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler admonishes me when he sees the law of sin distract me from the law of God	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler helps me recognize and resist temptation and use my time wisely for the purposes of the Lord	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler inspires me to improve my use of spiritual disciplines so as to grow in grace, pursue holiness in the Lord in every area of life, and to encourage others in the life of good works.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler exhorts me to live a full and abundant life in Christ by walking in faith, not by sight.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler prepare me to stand firm when others chide me for my faith and mock my witness when following Christ means the loss of friends, jobs, or opportunities for advancement.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler helps me find a team of strong, capable shepherds and leaders who guide, protect, and strengthen members of my church and me.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler, following Paul's exhortation to Timothy, seeks to develop two generations of leaders past himself – faithful believers who are teaching others to be faithful as well.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler shows my role in building a Psalm 48 city of God with splendor, strength, and beauty.	①	②	③	④	⑤
My discipler exhorts me to pursue my calling with relish and to be a mighty follower of God.	①	②	③	④	⑤